

text for tenders

stainless steel sliding door fitting with carrying rod astec b.800

sliding door fitting made of stainless steel on show. for glass or wooden door leaves. suitable for wall fixing or for fixing at ceiling. all visible surfaces are finely processed and brushed matt.

manufacturer: astec gmbh, design fittings, (www.astec-design.de) system includes:

2 pcs hangers with stainless steel covered polyamide rollers, diam. 50 mm, carrying supportframe made of stainless steel with round-off edges, rollerfittings and glass fittingelements are placed on a retracted level. bolted-connections are designed invisibly. anti lift-out bolt, designed as transparent part and fitted directly to the support frame.

all fitting elements for both, wallfitting as well as glassfitting for the carrying rod, are designed invisibly.

number and position of fitting elements according to the individual length of the carrying rod.

2 pcs door stoppers with direct impact on the door leaves, continuously adjustable. bolt-connections to fit the stoppers on the carrying rod are designed invisibly.

1 pce floor guide for door leaf:
for glass door leaves 10/12mm: u-shaped profile, solid stainless steel, for wooden door leaves: T-profile guiding blade made of polyamide, with all fixing components, complete documentation,

from the astec accessories range are also available:

astec pull handles
astec knobs
astec recessed grips
astec locks